

How many guests can the venue accommodate?

The venue reception area can accommodate up to 200 guests.

Do you provide tables and chairs?

Yes, we can provide ten, sixty inch round tables and eight, eight-foot long rectangular tables with white table cloths. We also provide 200 folding white chairs with padded seats to be used as you see fit (for ceremony or reception.) We also have table cloths for all tables.

Is there an available audio-visual system?

No, sorry.

What kind of equipment does my DJ or band need to provide?

They need to bring everything that they need to have a successful performance.

Does South Laurel have WiFi?

No, sorry.

Is there a catering kitchen?

Not at this time. Exciting insider info: a new barn offering an indoor venue is being planned and it will have everything!

Do you have an ice machine?

No, sorry.

What are the catering and bartending policies?

South Laurel allows clients to choose their caterer, bartender and other vendors of their choice. We highly recommend using professional services to ensure the full success of your event; however it is not required.

Does South Laurel book multiple weddings per day?

South Laurel does not book more than one wedding per day if the client has booked the Wedding package.

Is there an additional fee for a ceremony rehearsal?

No. This is something that we include in the Wedding package. The rehearsal must be scheduled with the venue director at least 30 days before your scheduled event.

Who is responsible for cleanup after the event?

To put it simply, you are. The client or their chosen representative must be present until the last guest has departed and you must ensure that the following has been completed:

- Trash is to be completely picked up and placed into the provided bins
- Clients must supply their own trash bags
- All rented equipment (décor) must be picked up after the event or during designated time as previously arranged with venue director

- Tables and chairs do not need to be picked up or moved
- Please refer to your personalized contract for further information regarding rental and cleanup procedures

How often is South Laurel available for rentals?

South Laurel facilities are available seven days a week. Please see our online calendar for our available dates.

Do you have a dressing area available?

With the Wedding package, the client may use the bride and groom dressing areas.

May cars be left overnight?

Cars may be left overnight but they will only be accessible to pick up during regular business hours. License plates of the cars left will be recorded and any damage incurred to the property from cars driving around or through gates when they are locked will be taken from the security deposit. South Laurel is not responsible for theft or damage to vehicles left outside of the client's chosen event hours.
